Dear Kate I am about to start for Glescam Hollingworth did not do anything about the piles gear I started the 24" Clanes. and it went off all O.K. he told me he would remitt by the 10th there is a firm of Engine Builders here Scott & Hodgson that will want a Prop licens on the piles gear they are farcedly impressed. But We must have more data as to durability. &c. a test at the Niagara falls Race bo as compared with the Wood gear. they are using compressed Wood for Mastic wheels in some Places and in others an Australian Beech which they claim to be very hard I have had some very queer Experience. and I have some stories to tell about Methods of doing work. and Statements of the Managers as to their belief in the best Methods. that before I expect you too believe me I will have too call on my friend Bullard too back me up. I have met with a courteous reception and have been shown through in all but two places, so that I have not very much to complain of

My Love too all

William. Gleason

P.S. I will be in Paris by the time you receive this and then home and home
