Dear Kate your letter of the 18th is just received being forwarded here by Mr Churschle I entirely agree with you about exhibiting only a 24" Machine. I am also satisfied at the earnings of the foundry. We cannot spare of the Bullard Order. Hotel lower I have been all over the ground with Mr Bullard last evening. in regard to money matters. I suppose when leaving home that my mortgage I could get from Fennick. but if you think there is time. and I think there is as you will have this letter by the 7 or 8. a letter ought to reach Paris by the 16 or 17th you can use your own judgement. but I would prefer to receive the money. than to be asking for it Or as about $50 will be sufficient Wm Gleason
