To the Editor
The Boston Post

Dear Sir

The twentieth ^{Century} woman will occupy the position of perfect equality with man - Equal though not identical. She will have her opinions counted ~~at~~ the ballot-box on every question. She is equally interested and must share the advantages and disadvantages of every custom and law alike with man.
Therefore, she will not be contented to accept conditions made for her by ~~man~~ ^{him} - she will ~~demand and~~ be granted her ~~right~~ ^{inherent} ~~unalienable~~ right to a voice in saying of whom and for what purposes taxes shall be levied. ~~she will~~ not submit to be taxed to support war ~~and~~ ~~support the liquor traffic, the tobacco habit and~~ all its concomitant ills and crimes against humanity. She will be the equal factor in their making, as well as the enduring, of all the conditions of the world men or happiness. In fine she will ~~be a help-meat~~ not ^{be} a dependent but a help-meat in the home, the church and the State.
