Office of the President, ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 10 1899.

My dear Sir

Yours of Dec. 2nd - was duly received - I am very sorry to find it impossible to send ~~you~~ one of our best speakers to be with you at - Williamstown next Tuesday - But I am sure without such presence and such word from one of our women - your Grange will not fail to adopt resolutions a petition - praying Congress that in whatever form of government it shall provide for our New Island Territories - it shall be based on perfect equality of civil & political rights for women, &

2

It will, indeed, be a great crime for Congress to establish Sex Oligarchies
- among those semi-civilized people -

- Hoping that your Penn-State Grange will do all in your power to secure^a genuine form of Republican government wherever our Stars & Stripes float - and that you will have a most successful Convention - I am

Very sincerely Yours

Susan B. Anthony
