Mrs. Perry Dead Carver House Opens ELECTION DAY, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2nd

Great Personality

MRS. FREDERICKA DOUGLASS PERRY

RELATIVE OF GREAT ABOLITIONIST PASSES

ALMA COLES

On Sunday morning, at about 5:00 A. M. we were awakened by a loud and insistent knocking on our front door. When we answered, a khaki clad messenger boy extended a yellow envelope which we opened fearfully. Sadly it contained news of the passing of our valued friend, Mrs. Fredericka Douglass Perry at her home in Kansas City at 6:45 the previous (Saturday) evening.

There are not words to express the ineffable loss which the passing of Mrs. Perry will mean to Negroes throughout the United States. Reared and educated in the public schools of Washington, Fredericka Douglass Sprague, daughter of Rosetta Douglass and Nathan Sprague, was born in Rochester and never during her career did she forget or forsake this her birthplace, where lie the remains of her famous grandfather, Frederick Douglass, for whom she was named.

When the faculty of Lincoln Institute in Jefferson City was considering the addition of a Home Economics Course to its curriculum, Mrs. Perry (then Miss Sprague) was offered the position. No equipment was furnished her, and she was warned that failure to accomplish acceptable results would mean the abolishment of the course. Despite this pessimistic outlook, Miss Sprague took over the department and founded a course of which Lincoln University is justly proud today.

Called from Lincoln University to Kansas City, Miss Sprague there organized the first classes in Home Economics for Colored Girls at Lincoln High School and instructed there for six years, at which time she resigned to become the wife of Dr. J. Edward Perry, who had just founded Wheatley Provident Hospital. Mrs. Perry organized the Wheatley Provident Hospital Auxiliary No. 1, a group of women workers whose annual production of a Fashion Show has netted the hospital more than $30,000.00.

Betterment of housing conditions for the nurses of Provident Hospital was the next project which Mrs. Perry undertook. Through the Wheatley Hospital Beacon Club which she organized, $2600 was raised to purchase a lot adjacent to the hospital which now houses an excellently equipped Nurses Home.

About this time Mrs. Perry was elected president of the Civic Protective Association, a group to look after the local welfare of persecuted and friendless Negroes in Kansas City. She held this office for six years, and during this time more than $2,000 was raised and spent in behalf of unfortunate Negroes defended by race lawyers. Not a single case was lost, and the local NAACP took over this work when the Civic Association went out of existence.

Next, Mrs. Perry offered her services to the Kansas City Juvenile Court for a period of four years. Here she observed the growing delinquency of young Negro girls and the absolute need for some sort of aid which would give these girls an opportunity to become useful women. Summoning the women of Kansas City to her home, she outlined her plan of action, and from this and subsequent meetings, there grew the Missouri Association for Colored Girls of which Mrs. Perry served as State Supervisor until June, 1940. Mrs. Perry was an ardent member of the National Association of Colored Women, and strongly advocated membership for all young girls and women, believing that a race can rise no higher than its women.

In the year 1937, Mrs. Perry returned to Rochester as the guest of the Citizens Planning Committee for the Celebration of Douglass Day and Exposition of Progress, of which Howard W. Coles is Chairman. Addressing the congregated citizens at the A. M. E. Zion Church at a memorial service for her revered grandfather, Mrs. Perry scored those who would forget the past in Negro history with these fiery words, "When the Negro in the South can go unmolested to the polls and cast his chosen vote; when every Negro can travel first class in any direction of the United States; when the doors of the schools of the land are thrown open as wide for the American Negro as for the foreign born; when justice is meted out to the Negro in the courts of the land on the basis of crime proven committed and not the color of the skin, when the law prohibits lynchings and when the 14th and 15th amendments are strictly observed, then I will say let us cease to recall what has been."

During her stay in Rochester at that time, Mrs. Perry was the guest of honour at a tea given for her at the home of Mrs. Mary T. L. Gannett, first lady of Rochester and champion of the Negro.

From that time forward, there were not many Douglass Day celebrations from which Mrs. Perry and her sister, Mrs. Rosetta S. Jones were absent. In 1941, they were present at the unveiling and rededication of the monument to their illustrious grand sire when it was removed by the city fathers from the site at St. Paul Square where it had stood for some 40 odd years, to its new location in beautiful Highland Park. Another guest at that time was Mrs. Sallie W. Stewart, teacher in Evansville, Ind., and president of the Frederick Douglass Memorial Association. At this same time, a copy of the "Cradle of Freedom," a history of the Negro people in Rochester, Western New York and Canada, with emphasis on the life and works of Douglass was presented to Mrs. Perry. This book, by Howard W. Coles is

NOTED EDUCATOR ADDRESSES MEETING

Dr. Alain Leroy Locke, recently returned from Haiti, addressed a meeting of the N.A.A.C.P. in the Gannett House on Wednesday evening on the subject "Race and the Present World Crisis."

In opening his remarks, Dr. Locke made mention of the fact that liberalism in the matter of race relations had lost most of its militancy and urged the citizens of Rochester to recall, with sufficient vividness the fact that Rochester had harboured such liberals as Frederick Douglass, Susan B. Anthony and Mrs. Mary T. L. Gannett, to let these facts be strong enough to screw their courage in these matters to the sticking point. Insisting that the present crisis not only created a problem but offered an opportunity, Dr. Locke asserted that never since pre-Civil War days in 1855 to 1860 has the race question been under such discussion. This is due to the fact that because of the global aspect of this war, race is no longer a southern or northern question, nor is it even any longer purely a national question. It has become both general and international, a point of discussion which in the peace to come will be under greater consideration than the questions of territorial dominance. It is a factor which is basically an issue of proper respect and proper justice rendered by any majority to any and all minorities, because on a positive answer to the problem depends not only the morale of the American Negro but also the confidence of the Asiatic allies who realize that the treatment given to one minority group can very easily be meted out to any other such group and necessarily view the overtures of the Allied Nations (England and America) with suspicion.

Asked how greatly responsible for the Detroit riots was enemy propaganda, Dr. Locke, who was in Detroit at the time, replied that little or no influence was exerted by this fact. He stated that the FBI has made investigations to prove or disprove this and that the basic causes of the riot were the housing situation and the influx of anti-Negro feeling brought in by incoming white southerners. He stated further in his reply that the two crucial points for the northern Negro today concerned discrimination in housing and discrimination in employment. The three most jointly dedicated to Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Mary T. L. Gannett and to little Joan Coles, daughter of the author.

We of the VOICE news paper, who knew and loved her, mourn the passing of this great woman, and repeat as we have so often said before that by her works, she had indeed proved herself a noble character, a worthy granddaughter of the great Frederick Douglass. We extend our sincere sympathy to her husband, Dr. Perry; her sister, Mrs. Rosetta S. Jones and to all the other survivors. May she rest in peace.

CARVER HOUSE DEDICATED OCT. 17TH

On Sunday, October 17th, the congregation and pastor of Saint Simon's Church passed another milestone. This was the dedication of Carver House, which has been opened under the auspices of the Episcopal Diocese to be used as a joint parish house and recreation center. Named for the renowned scientist and humanitarian, Dr. George Washington Carver, late rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Carver House was dedicated by the Right Reverend Bartel H. Reinheimer, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Rochester in the presence of some 400 members and friends of St. Simon's.

Old residents of this community will recall that it was in the fall of 1921 that the Right Reverend Edward Thomas Demby, then Bishop of Arkansas visited Rochester and founded what was known as St. Simon's Mission. The first pastor of the Church was the late Rev. Charles Allison who was succeeded by Rev. Walter Cooke and later by Rev. Squire Schofield.

In the summer of 1927, the present rector, Father Brown, came from Buffalo, N. Y., to take charge of the Mission. In June, 1928, he was ordained to the priesthood.

In 1935, St. Simon's Episcopal Church, a sparkling white stucco edifice on Oregon Street near Central Avenue was dedicated by the Right Reverend David Lincoln Ferris, then Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Rochester.

On Thursday, October 14th, Carver House was opened and the members of the church and their friends gathered there in the afternoon and evening to inspect the new premises and to congratulate each other and Father Brown on the completion of the project. It is expected that when this center is completely outfitted it will house a day nursery for the children of working mothers, juvenile club rooms, reading and recreation rooms and reception rooms for transient service men.

On Sunday, October 17th, dedication services were begun with evensong at St. Simon's Church. The choir of St. Phillips Church, Geneva, united with the St. Simon's choir and among the clergymen participating were the Rev. Frederick Winnie, rector of St. Luke's Church and dean of the Rochester Convocation; Rev. Jerome Kates, D.D., rector of Saint Stephens Church; and Rev. Donald Gratiot, rector of Christ Church.

Rev. Charles Purcell, rector of Epiphany Episcopal Church acted as Master of Ceremonies and introduced the speakers to the congregation. These included Dr. Hugh Burr, executive secretary of the Federation of Churches, Rev. Charles Boddie, minister of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, Herbert Lansdale, executive secretary of the YMCA.

At the end of the services in the church, the vestry men, visiting clergy and congregation marched down Central Avenue.

WE PRAY!

Editorial—Howard W. Coles There are those among us, within the Negro race, who definitely belong to the pacifist group, if they may even be classed as such.
 There are others who belong to the opportunist faction. There are others who might be classed with those who agitate for agita-tion's sake alone. There are others still of a small minority, who consider themselves the San Souci, or Intellectuals and who look down on the Negro who sings spirituals and perhaps, through no fault of his, is forced to These factions were well represented at a meeting the other night; a meeting held on the West Side of Rochester to discuss recreation for our boys and girls.

 Some of those present wriggled and squirmed and groveled in the dust when a few men with guts, (pardon the use of the vernacular) had the nerve and temerity to speak up to Mr. Charlie, who was quite willing to listen.

As Negroes, some of us want everything; but we are not willing to work and fight for it. We Pray for this group and for ourselves as well, hoping that they will see the light some day before it is TOO LATE.

 critica lmeasures of Federal control affecting the Negro today are: 1—the Supreme Court decision prohibiting closed white primaries; 2—the Anti-Poll Tax Legislation and 3—the Federal Education Bill with its non-discrimination clause. He urged that steps be taken to bring these measures to a vote and see that they are passed. (Note: with reference to this matter, the NAACP had on hand telegrams urging the passage of the Poll Tax Bill which were signed by those present.) Dr. Locke suggests that in order to more fully arouse the indolent, selfish and unscrupulous persons to the full realization of the harm that race inequalities can do, we should dramatize the problem. He feels that race har-red and race baiting is not the consensus of majority American opinion, but is merely the expression of a small reactionary minority which, because of the indifference of the masses has seized control and put over a misrepresentative program. He stated that his private opinion, gleaned from many conversations with Asiatics and from his recent sojourn in Haiti is that in a contest between Anglo-American and Russian Dominance of Asia and the Carribean, Russia would win out simply because of the Anglo-American attitude toward racism.

 mittee. Appointed by Bishop

 McConnell, Mrs. Herman Santee, Mrs. Charles Wicks, Edwin R.
 Williamson, Rev. Frederick Winnie, and the rector of St. Simons, the Rev. Frank Brown.

The Editors of the Voice Newspaper congratulate the Episcopal Diocese and Father Brown on this achievement, and express the very fervent hope that this effort on the part of the east side will awake a like response on the part of the west side.

affect world dominance in the post-war world must be in a position to ask England and the other colonials to reform their race policy, but this can only be effective if the U. S. has its own hands clean. It must be impressed upon everyone that race problems affect not only the race against which the discrimination is practiced, but also the whole human race and the race problem must be solved because of its rightness and expediency because the entire world situation hinges around a solution which will guarantee equal racial, social, political and religious freedom for all races.

Dr. Locke urged the NAACP to become as well a National Association for the Advancement of Democracy; to take a positive stand on all questions of race and to realize that only by the complete abolition of Anti-Semitism and Anti-Negroism will the true victory be won, for even a nation which can protect itself on the field of battle cannot be safe unless it is sound in moral status.
 Other nations look up to the U.
 S. and the blot of racism is tearing down an otherwise fine structure.

Dr. Locke is a graduate of Harvard University; was a Rhodes scholar at Oxford University in England and also studied at the University of Berlin. He has been in Haiti as a professional representative of the U. S. Government and holds a chair at Howard University, Washington, and has written innumerable

JUDGE FOR THE PEOPLE

A Judge should be a man selected on account of nobility of character, of heart, of soul and of mind; a man of affairs, learned in the affairs pertaining strictly to his branch, as also in literature and science; a man merciful, kind and generous, of a sterling character, temperate, though not biased by private opinion; in a word, he should be a man, the representative of justice though not usurping that power as abiding in himself, but as the instrument of that power; whose moral character ought to be without blemish, a man whose habits, integrity, shrewd judgment and wise counsel place him above the average man, making him of the people and for the people.

The people of this city have in Judge James P. O'Connor, the Republican candidate for County Court Judge, a man possessing these qualities. He was born in the city of Rochester on December 21, 1885. He attended the schools and the University of Rochester. He received his legal education at Cornell Law School, from which he was graduated with the degree of LL.B. He is a member of the Delta Chi Fraternity of Cornell University.

In May 1917, Mr. O'Connor entered Officers' Training Camp at Madison Barracks and was commissioned a Captain of Artillery in which more than 400 Monroe County men served. With that regiment, he was engaged in the St. Mihiel and Argonne drives.

 He was later promoted to Major of his Battalion.

In 1915, Mr. O'Connor was elected supervisor of the Seventh Ward. He was re-elected in 1917, while he was in the army and again in 1919. Before beginning his third term, however, he resigned because of his appointment as Assitant District Attorney, a position he held for three years and where he became familiar with the criminal law and its enforcement. In this office, he was assistant to District Attorney William F. Love, now a Supreme Court Judge.

Upon the death of Delbert C.
 Hebbard, one of the judges of City Court of Rochester, James P. O'Connor was appointed to fill the vacancy. He has been three times elected to the judgeship and is now one of the Judges of City Court.

Judge O'Connor's twelve years of service and experience on the bench in City Court well qualify him for the office of County Court Judge.

A VOTE FOR WICKINS AND CONDON MEANS A VOTE FOR PROGRESSIVE LEADERSHIP

As another election day looms on the horizon, we pause before we cast our vote for a party or a candidate. We ask ourselves, "What can I expect from the party that I am going to support and the men I am going to help put into positions in the legislative halls of our government to help run our political machinery?"

Naturally one does expect some consideration from these people after the election is over. A man who is victorious in any election campaign owes something to the voters who made that victory possible and in order to keep that victory, he must grow in the people's favor by the way he speaks on the street; by the way he greets one at the door or in his office and by the fairness of any decision he is called upon to make at any time after taking office.

Some candidates who are elected to office by the people are placed where the laws are introduced and passed; where appropriations are made, changed and dispensed with. The voter therefore must rely on the unprejudiced, unselfish, broadminded characteristics of the man or men who represent them in the high offices.

A vote for a candidate must be based on a great deal on the facts and on the trustworthiness of the candidate involved. The candidates to whom this caption refers are to be depended upon at all times and this is a very important attribute in an individual, more especially during these days of turmoil and strife.

WALTER RYAN LEADS THE WAY

The people of the 7th Ward are representative of all classes, nationalities and creeds. Essentially they are a business and industrial segment of our great commonwealth. Here hundreds of families of a dozen or more different nationalities live as neighbors and friends. Their children attend the same schools, play on the same playgrounds, at the same recreational centers and other places of communal life. The same way that they work and play together, is the way that the voters of the Seventh Ward have come to depend on their Supervisor, neighbor and friend, Walter J. Ryan. He has lived in the 7th ward for over 20 years; he is married and resides at 243 Baden Street in the very heart of the ward. He is a respected business man and has been associated with driver's union and the business for more than 15 years. He is the type of Supervisor whose door is open at all times to the voters of the Seventh ward. His telephone number has been synonymous with his name for he always has time to talk to those who are in need of his services, whether political or otherwise. This is likewise true of his running mate, Samuel Bernbaum who has been a lifelong resident of the 7th ward.

Mr. Ryan was elected Republican Supervisor of the 7th ward for the first time in 1942 on a welcomed upon the scene with open arms. We might say here, that it is sometimes difficult to find words to use if you do not believe in what you are trying to say; but in the case of Mr. Wickins, we know that these words come from the hearts of the people of the Third Ward and we are assured that he will have their united support.

The same may be truly said about the other candidate included in this pre-election message. Mr. Condon is greatly deserving of your support on Tuesday on the basis of his record and conscientious attitude and genial nature toward all things concerning the people of this ward.

voters that this article is not written to discredit the ability or the character or reputation of the colored candidate because he is respected by all; but to show you why you must continue to vote the Republican ticket and not be misled by this seeming gesture of the Democratic Party of the Seventh Ward.

MONROE COUNTY
REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE
UNION TRUST BUILDING
ROCHESTER N. Y.

Dear Voter:

We are at War. Nothing should in any way interfere or interrupt its speedy victorious prosecution, to the end that peace will soon bring our fighting men and women back home.

Your Republican County Committee will follow that prescription, but there is an election — an important election — to be held on November 2nd.

A Lieutenant Governor is to be elected and Joe R. Hanley, our Republican Candidate, should be given an overwhelming majority, not only because of his own excellent qualifications, but as an interim approval of the splendid administration of Governor Thomas E. Dewey.

Our local candidates are too well known for their proven abilities and good records to need extensive publicity.

This, then, is a request that our citizens without further entreaty from us, go to their polling place on election day and vote.

In this orderly manner we can easily take care of our civic duties with no interference to our war effort. We can maintain our American way of life and safeguard the Constitutional Government which we cherish so much and has made these United States of ours the greatest government in all the world.

You will join me in all of this, I am sure. Thank you.

Faithfully yours,
