Ms. Scott, a consultant to the City School District Open Enrollment office, received a master's degree in counseling from Kent State in 1963, and recently her alma mater, Albion College in Michigan, presented her with a Distinguished Alumni Award. She has been the President of the 19th Ward Community Association, on the board of directors of the Visiting Nurses and was appointed to the New York Citizen Information Service Board in 1969 by former Governor Rockefeller.

Susan B. Anthony is Rochester's most famous citizen. She is known throughout the world for her struggle for women's rights. Her house, at 17 Madison St., is a national landmark. The 19th amendment to the Constitution bears her name. And there is talk that if the $2 bill is revived, Miss Anthony's picture should be on it.

Dear Faculty Member:

Somewhat later than originally planned and somewhat earlier than expected, Wilson Commons will open April 4th (of this year).

Since last October there has existed a Wilson Commons Program Board, made up of students, faculty, administration, and alumni, whose function is to promote and oversee activities in the Commons. Given an opening date, the Program Board is developing plans for a celebratory week. The theme of our program is the Lively Arts in which each day will emphasize a particular art form, i.e., Dance, Literature, Music . .

Mr. Howard Coles Suite 316 Powers Building Rochester 14, New York Dear Mr. Coles:

This letter is to invite and urge you to participate in the National Conference on Constitutional Rights and American Freedom which I am calling to meet in New York City on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 11 and 12. The purpose of the Conference and a rough outline of the agenda are contained in the attached release which I issued earlier this week

The Tuesday, October 11, meeting is scheduled only for the evening, convening at 8:00 p.m. and recessing at 11:00 p.m. The Wednesday, October 12, meeting and activities will begin at 9:00 a.m. and will be completed by late afternoon.

I am planning to meet with the working panels and to receive their recommendations on Wednesday, and also to address the Conference and the public that afternoon.

Senator Hubert H. Humphrey will serve as Chairman of the Conference. Others already scheduled to participate include Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, former Governor Herbert H Lehman, Governor G. Mennen Williams, Senators Joseph S. Clark and Philip A. Hart, Representatives Emanuel Celler, William L. Dawson, Charles C. Diggs, Robert N. C. Nix and Adam Clayton Powell, Mayor Robert F. Wagner, who will be host to the Conference, and Mr. Harry

The working sessions will take place at the Hotel Park-Sheraton 55th and 56th Streets at 7th Avenue, New York City. A detailed agenda will be mailed to you within the next week.

However, it is important that we know as soon as possible whether or not you will be with us. A selfaddressed postcard is enclosed for your convenience in letting me know your plans respecting atten-

"If there is no struggle there is no progress. Those who propose to favor freedom and yet depreciate agitation, are men who want crops without plowing up the ground. They want rain without thunder and lightning. They want the oceans' majestic waves without the Awful roar of its waters."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

January 25, 1967

Mr. Howard W. Coles The Rochester Voice Dear Mr. Coles:

Provost Robert France of the University of Rochester says that he has written to you about the Frederick Douglass exhibit we are planning in Rush Rhees Library. The exhibit will be displayed from February 6 through March 5.

Dr. France indicated that you might have some material which would be appropriate for our exhibit and which you might like to discuss with either me or Mrs. Margaret B. Andrews, head of the Department of Special Collections.

At present, we plan to exhibit a large number of original letters written by Frederick Douglass when he was in Rochester and in Washington, D. C. We also are planning to display books by and about Douglass, excerpts from some of his speeches, newspaper clippings, pamphlets and photographs. The bust of Douglass already is on display in the foyer of Rush Rhees Library.

What we really would like to exhibit, but what we lack, is a copy of Douglass' newspaper which we have in microfilm form only. If you have any items which you think would be appropriate, and especially, if you have a copy of his newspaper, we would be glad to discuss their display if you could phone or visit us.

Early History of Mumford Baptist Church

Rev. and Mrs. Clayton A. Coles

When you give the United Way you give to IN THE BEGINNING:

I talk to God — "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

For centuries past, every nation and race of recognized ability and merit included in the world's history, has taken pride in reverting to some outstanding feature of its existence; pointing with pride to some particular event, type of culture or accomplishment which in turn has made this people known to the world and added to its national glory and life.

The American Negro in this area is no exception in this matter, for he can point with great pride and esteem to the life and character of the humble servant of Stonewall Jackson, the Reverend Clayton A. Coles.

Clayton A. Coles was a product of the slave system and the trials, tribulations and vicissitudes suffered by this humble servant were written on his back by the slavedriver's lash. Like many slaves, he was denied the right of knowing his origin; just who his parents were. But his faint memories stood him in good stead and somehow he knew that he perhaps saw the light of day in the city of Chattanooga Tennessee in the year 1838, 23 years before the Civil War began. During his early life as a slave child, he worked for many masters on many plantations until he was finally acquired by Stonewall Jackson, the famous Confederate General. From this time on, his life as a slave was not a hard one because the Lord had blessed him unnatural that he entered the ministry. On August 26, 1885, by formal passage of a vote from the Ebenezer Baptist Church of Culpeper County Virginia, he was exhorted "with the full and cordial approbation of his brethren . . . to exercise his gifts in preaching the Gospel of Christ." The ordination certificate is attested to by the Rev. G. W. Blair, pastor (of Ebenezer Baptist Church) and Thomas O. Madden, Clerk. A few years later, he migrated to Philadelphia where he married Miss Ellen Wilson and was employed by John Wanamaker, the merchant prince. During his residency in the environs of Philadelphia, he pastored various circuit Churches. After his years in Pennsylvania, he came to this area, settling in the Genesee County in the little hamlet of Belcoda, New York

Although Rev. Coles had had no formal education, he was an eloquent speaker, and seeing the need among his people in this area who had migrated here to work as tenant farmers, he began holding meetings in the Baptist parsonage which still stands along the Belcoda Road. In 1891, he founded the Belcoda Baptist Church of Mumford, New York. This church was incorporated in August of 1898; the name was later changed to the Mumford Second Baptist Church. At that time, he lived in a little house near the Belcoda Cemetary that he tended for a quarter of a century where he rests today beside his wife Ellen.

Along with Rev. Coles, the early founders of the church were the Rev. J. W. Jeffries of Long Island; John Gorden who served as Clerk; Edward Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Clark and Lucy Gordon. Under membership, 8 persons were received by personal experience, 9 under Watch Care and 1 by Baptism. The certificate of incorporation, dated the 17th of August 1898 includes the following brethern Clayton A. Coles, Jarrid Fraser, Henry Holmes and Henry Johnson.

By way of affiliation, we have the following letter dated July 7, 1902. From the Rev. W. J. Reid, pastor of the University Avenue Baptist Church in Rochester, New York, it states: "Dear Brother Coles: I found these papers in my desk as I was cleaning up and thought they might be of interest enough for you to preserve them. I think they were given to me some time ago by Mr. Hebbard. Hope you are prospering. Yours etc. W. J. Reid."

It is worth noting that despite vicissitudes metamorphasis of time, the Mumford Second Baptist Church has had a continued record of service; the first Black church founded in this area was the A.M.E. Zion Church (still also in existence) located on Favor Street in Rochester, N.Y. As a grandson of the founder of the Mumford Church, we realize the delicacy of the subject especially when we think of giving credit where credit is due for the yeoman service that was performed by these early pioneers. Suffice it to say, that space and time do not permit the naming of all those who have made a lasting contribution to the religious and social structure of the area. Here are only a few: the Charles B. Coles Family, Messrs. Minor Poles, John Martin, Horace Blackburn. It is significant of the role played by Mumford Second Baptist Church that several of its pastors, including Dr. Mordecai Johnson, Dr. James E. Rose, Sr. and others have risen to great (Continued on page 6)

CITY OF ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

Honorable Roger C. B. Morton Secretary of the Interior Interior Building Washington, D.C. Dear Secretary Morton:

An effort of the magnitude and excellence of the restoration of the Frederick Douglass Home in our nation's capitol evokes special commendation and pleasure from the people of my city. The City of Rochester claims Frederick Douglass as the greatest man ever to live there. To honor Douglass

February 14, 1972 with this fine preservation, authorized by act of Congress, will preserve for succeeding generations the legacy of this famedorator, writer, statesman and international leader in the struggle for freedom and justice.

> The persevering efforts of the Frederick Dounglass League, founded in Rochester by Douglass in 1884, and currently under the leadership of its President Howard W. Coles, have done much to perpetuate the memory and heritage of this great man's leadership and ideals.

Frederick Douglass chose Rochester as his home base during his most productive years, from 1847-72, when he published the North Star and lead the battle against slavery and for equality for all Americans. He is buried in our Mt. Hope Cemetary; his statue stands in Highland Park; and a junior high school and prominent new building at the University of Rochester have been named in his

America's commitment to his memory and its renewed dedication to his ideals, represented by the investment of the Congress in the preservation of his home, is needed and welcome. His struggle for freedon, independence and dignity for every individual by means of dialogue, discussion and reason holds a message of enduring validity in these challenging times.

Cordially, Stephen May

THE WHITE HOUSE Washington National Black History Month

February 1976

In the Bicentennial year of our Independence, we can review with admiration the impressive contributions of black Americans to our national life and

One hundred years ago, to help highlight these achievements, Dr. Carter G. Woodson founded the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History. We are grateful to him today for his initiative, and we are richer for the work of his organization.

Freedom and the recognition of individual rights are what our Revolution was all about. They were ideals that inspired our fight for Independence: ideals that we have been striving to live up to ever since. Yet it took many years before these ideals became a reality for black citizens.

The last quarter-century has finally witnessed significant strides in the full integration of black people into every area of national life. In celebrating Black History Month, we can take satisfaction from this recent progress in the realization of the ideals envisioned by our Founding Fathers. But, even more than this, we can seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our

I urge my fellow citizens to join me in tribute to Black History Month and to the message of courage and perseverance it brings to all of us. Gerald R. Ford

The headstone which marks the grave of Clayton A. Coles in Belcoda Cemetary testifies in part to the high regard in which his fellow citizens held him. It is mute testimony that Mumford Second Baptist Church has continually striven to uplift the moral, educational and social tone of the community. As I stood with reverence at the shrine, I realized that this was hallowed ground and in my mind's eye, I saw also those who stood beside him and helped to nourish the infant Church to maturity. And I breathed a silent prayer that this work, so gallantly begun and carried forward, would become a part of that tradition of posterity that follows from one generation to the next.

Willie Carter, leader of the delegation from FIGHT, reminded those gathered at the gravesite in Mt. Hope Cemetery that Rochester has been proclaimed Frederick Douglass City for the Bicentennial Until 1942, homage was paid Douglass here annually on June 9 That date was chosen because the monument to him now located in Highland Park was unveiled June 1899, said Howard Coles, an historian and publisher of a newspaper descended from Douglass 'North Star."

Virginia Wilson Negro Information and Helping Hand Center and What Makes it Unique

(Named in honor of the Director's mother, Mrs. Virginia Wilson)

Mrs. Mildred Johnson, Director of the Virginia Wilson Negro Information and Helping Hand Center, runs a non-profit social agency of her own which is unique. Mrs. Johnson gives temporary relief to persons in emergency situations and hers is the only social agency in the city which is open all hours, on weekends and holidays. To her come many people unknown to the agencies, or whom existing agencies seem unable to help. A nonprofessional social worker, she can relate to social work establishments and to the people who find it difficult to go to these agencies or do not know where or how to obtain help. She is assisted in her work by her faithful and devoted sister, Mrs. Lydia Wilson. Her sister is in ill health now and Mrs. Johnson needs the assistance of a secretary and volunteers. She is listed in the telephone directory under Negro Information Center. This is the only listing in the directory under Negro, and because of this, attracts calls from people new to the city who don't know of other agencies and who need advice about living in Rochester. many newsomers name met their ries triends through Mrs. Johnson. she is so well known that many referrals are by word of mouth.

The Center is named for her momer who was the most important influence in her life. She is carrying on her mother's work and mission and encourages others to do the same

do the same

The vast knowledge she has has come to her from her direct approach in solving problems. Each new and different problem has given her new information, new contacts, new experience. She has been active in nearly every community thrust and knows the leaders of our city.

She is constantly putting people up for the night when they have no place to stay. She will not let anyone stay out in the street. She ets and by Judges in the courts as a last resort when all else fails. At times like this she gives her own money, or gets a friend to do so. She has a coterie of friends in many areas of influence whom she calls upon from time to time to help. She works in the courts as Amicus Curiae, friend of the court, and helps people to obtain legal assistance. She has a house behind her home with rooms, kitchen and bath where she gives temporary housing to people until they have a place to live and can take care of themselves. When conditions are crowded she takes people into her home. She lived in poverty herself and although she has enough to eat and a roof over her head she needs many things and has few juxuries.

Mrs. Johnson is a unique person in that she courageously pursues life and involvement. She, it has been said, knows more different people from all walks of life than anyone in Rochester. She is unafraid of being herself at all times and truly lives and believes the philosophy: "The meaning of life is not to be questioned but to be responded to, for we are responsible to life." She is a member of Mount Olivet Baptist Church, but also attends other churches and temples. Hers is an economic spirit. When working with people of various service agencies and in the courts to help those in need she is remembered because she goes beyond the limits of purely professional service, beyond the tricks of the trade, and this kindles between then that truly personal work which alone is fulfilling.

Last summer Mrs. Johnson was consultant to a free day camp sponsored by Rochester's antipoverty agency, Action for a Better Community. She set it up and recruited the children and aides. The day camp was for the poorest children whose parents could not afford to send them to the day camps available because of the fee. Meals were provided and the children taken to parks, playgrounds, zoos, Niagara Falls, and for a yacht cruise up and down the barge canal. She did a marvelous job of recruiting because she knows the really down and out people who need help and has friends who also know many destitute families.

During the July, 1964 riots Mrs. Johnson went out in the streets talking to people and returning order. Last summer during the latter part of July when there were disturbances she helped organize a grout to stay out in the streets with coffee and doughnuts and talk to and break up disorderly groups. Night after night she had little sleep and during the day the pressing problems of the day camp and her Center sapped her strength but she never gave up.

Last spring, on Mother's Day, the Genesee Valley Chapter of the Negro Professional Women's Club honored her at a dinner where she was given the Sojourner Truth Award. Attached is a brief description of the woman famous over a hundred years ago, and which tells of Mrs. Johnson's work and lists some projects of the Negro Information Center.

Written by a volunteer who has known Mrs. Johnson and her sister Mrs. Lvdia Wilson for a year.

The Annual Frederick Douglass Day will be celebrated on June 9, 1976 . . . This date was set by the New York State Legislature during the month of February 1899. The affair has always been sponsored by The Frederick Douglass League, which was founded by John W. Thompson and Frederick Douglass.
